CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

046169

INFORMATION REPORT

This Document contains information affecting the National Defense of the United States, within the meaning of Title 18, Sections 793 and 794, of the U.S. Code, as amended. Its transmission or revelation of its contents to or receipt by an unauthorized person is prohibited by law. The reproduction of this form is prohibited.

Inspection and Control of Merchant Seamen, Tientsin and Canton NO. OF PAGES 1. REQUIREMENT NO. RD 25X1 REQUIREMENT NO. RD 25X1 This is UNEVALUATED Information The Source Evaluations in this seron are definitive. Intervalsa of control is tenance. The source evaluations in this seron are definitive. Intervalsa of control is tenance. The source evaluations in this seron are definitive. Intervalsa of control is tenance. The source evaluations in this seron are definitive. Intervalsa of control is tenance. The source evaluations in this seron are definitive. Intervalsa of control is tenance. The source evaluations in this seron are definitive. The area of control is tenance. The source evaluations in this seron are definitive. The area of control is tenance. The source evaluations in this seron are definitive. The area of control is tenance. The source evaluations in this seron are definitive. The area of control is the services. The series are evaluations are definitive. The area of the services are definitive. The control is the	SUBJECT Inspection and Control of Merchant Seamen, Tientsin and Canton NO. OF PAGES 1 REQUIREMENT NO. RD 25 REFERENCES This is UNEVALUATED Information THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISA OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR KEY SEE REVERSE) 2.2 1. required to register the amount of food they intended to purchase. Food purchases were limited to six cattles of pork, 10 cattles of wine, and 10 eggs per person. Food purchases exceeding the specified amount were confiscated and returned to the store from which it came. Crew members moved freely in Tientsin, although they thought they were unsurveillance by the Communist authorities. Visits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton run were rarely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials body search was infrequent. 3. the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Sheck post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two polic officials a man and a woman, from the Fearl River Police Station boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two polic officials a man and a woman, from the Fearl River Police Station boarded the ships.	_
Inspection and Control of Merchant Seamen, Tientsin and Canton NO. OF PAGES REQUIREMENT NO. RD 25X1 REQUIREMENT NO. RD 25X1 REFERENCES This is UNEVALUATED Information THE SOURCE FVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS THATAVE. (FOR REF SEE REVERS) 25X1 1. required to register the amount of foot they intended to purchase. Food purchases were limited to six cattites of pork, 10 catties of wine, and 10 eggs per person. Food purchases exceeding the specified amount were confiscated and returned to the store from which it came. Grew members moved freely in Tientsin, although they thought they were under surveillance by thefQuapmulate subnortities. Visits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. run were rearely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials; body search was infrequent. 3. the only Chirises Communist officials boarding ships to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei (University of Station boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials and an and a woman, from the Fearl River Police Station boarded the ships to examine the passengers. YEAR RE-REVIEW	Inspection and Control of Merchant Seamen, Tientsin and Canton NO. OF PAGES REQUIREMENT NO. RD 25 REQUIREMENT NO. RD 26 REFERENCES This is UNEVALUATED Information THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR REV SEE REVERSE) 26 1. required to register the amount of food they intended to purchase. Food purchases were limited to six catties of pork, 10 catties of wine, and 10 eggs per person. Food purchases exceeding the specified amount were confiscated and returned to the store from which it came. Crew members moved freely in Tientsin, although they thought they were am surveillance by thetCommunist authorities. Visits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton run were rerely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials body search was infrequent. 3. the Only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships to Canton were from the Kunggel Customs Office, the Chinenshan (N. 22-E 113-32) sheek post, the Kwangtung Customs Office, and the Nanshiht on (0589/4258/7333) sheek post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two polic officials is a man and a woman, from the Fearl River Police Station boarded the ships.
This is UNEVALUATED Information The source evaluations in this series are definitive. The amount of food they intended to purchase. Food purchases were limited to six cattles of pork, 10 cattles of wine, and 10 eggs per person. Food purchases exceeding the specified amount were confiscated and returned to the store from which it came. Crew members moved freely in Tientsin, although they thought they were under surveillance by thet@communiet authorities. Visits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. 2. 1. In required to register This is UNEVALUATED Information Were 25) This is UNEVALUATED Information Were 25) This is UNEVALUATED Information	This is UNEVALUATED Information THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF CONTEMN IS TENTATIVE. (FOR KEY SEE REVERSE) The amount of food they intended to purchase. Food purchases were limited to six catties of pork, 10 catties of wine, and 10 eggs per person. Food purchases exceeding the specified amount were confiscated and returned to the store from which it came. Crew members moved freely in Tientsin, although they thought they were unsurvelllance by the Cymmunist authorities. Visits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton run were rerely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials body search was infrequent. 1. the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships to Canton were from the Kungpei Customs Officials boarding ships to Canton were from the Kungpei Customs Officials heading ships to Canton were from the Kungpei Customs Officials heading ships to Canton were from the Kungpei Customs Officials and two police officials a man and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials a man and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships.
This is UNEVALUATED Information THE SOURCE FYAUATIONS IN THIS BERONT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF CONTRY IS TANATIVE. THE AMPRAISAL OF CONTRY IS TANATIVE. THE AMPRAISAL OF CONTRY IS TANATIVE. 25X1 1. required to register the amount of food they intended to purchase. Food purchases were limited to six catties of pork, 10 catties of wine, and 10 eggs per person. Food purchases exceeding the specified amount were confiscated and returned to the store from which it came. Orew members moved freely in Tientsin, although they thought they were under surveillance by thet@communist suthorities. Visits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton run were rarely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials; body search was infrequent. 3. the only Chimese Communist officials boarding ships 25) to Canton were from the Kumppei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kumppei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kumppei Customs Office, the Chitenan (N 22-14, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kumppei Customs Office, the Chitenan (N 22-14, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kumppei Customs Office, and the Manshith'ou (0569/A258/F) (733) Book post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials a man and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials as man and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials and and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials and the Manshith'ou (0569/A258/F) (13-14-14-14-14-14-14-14	This is UNEVALUATED Information THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR KEY SEE REVERSE) The amount of food they intended to purchase. Food purchases were limited to six cattles of pork, 10 cattles of wine, and 10 eggs per person. Food purchases exceeding the specified amount were confiscated and returned to the store from which it came. Crew members moved freely in Tientsin, although they thought they were unsurveillance by the Communist authorities. Visits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton run were rarely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials body search was infrequent. 3. the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships to Canton were from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Chilenshan (N 22-12 ill3-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials form the Kungpei Customs Office, the Chilenshan (N 22-12 ill3-32) sheek post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials a man and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships.	5 X 1
This is UNEVALUATED Information THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISA OF CONTRIN IS TRIVATIVE. TORKEY SEE REVERS! 25X1 1. required to register the amount of food they intended to purchase. Food purchases were Limited to eix estites of pork, 10 catties of wine, and 10 eggs per person. Food purchases exceeding the specified amount were confiscated and returned to the store from which it came. Crew members moved freely in Tientsin, although they thought they were under surveillance by theftcompunist authorities. Visits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton run were rarely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials; body search was infrequent. 3. the Only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships 25) to Canton were from the Kungpel (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpel Customs Office, the Chilenshan (N 22-14, E 113-32) theck post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials a man and a woman, from the Fearl River Police Station boarded the ships to examine the passengers. CONFIDENTIAL/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY YEAR RE-REVIEW	This is UNEVALUATED Information THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR KEY SEE REVERSE) 26 1. required to register the amount of food they intended to purchase. Food purchases were limited to six catties of pork, 10 catties of wine, and 10 eggs per person. Food purchases exceeding the specified amount were confiscated and returned to the store from which it came. Crew members moved freely in Tientsin, although they thought they were unsurveillance by the Communist authorities. Visits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton run were rarely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials body search was infrequent. 3. the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Ch'ienshan (N 22-E 113-32) sheck post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials a man and a woman, from the Fearl River Police Station boarded the ships.	,,,,
1. required to register the amount of food they intended to purchase. Food purchases were limited to six catties of pork, 10 catties of wine, and 10 eggs per person. Food purchases exceeding the specified amount were confiscated and returned to the store from which it came. Crew members moved freely in Tientsin, although they thought they were under surveillance by theftcumunist authorities. Vieits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton run were rerely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials; body search was infrequent. the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Chidenshan (N 22-14, E 113-32) sheek post the Kwangtung Gustoms Office, and the Nanshini ou (O569/4256) 7333) sheek post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials a man and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships to examine the passengers. CONFIDENTIAL/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY YEAR RE-REVIEW	THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR KEY SEE REVERSE) 2.2 1. crew members of ships arriving in Tientsin were required to register the amount of food they intended to purchase. Food purchases were limited to six catties of pork, 10 catties of wine, and 10 eggs per person. Food purchases exceeding the specified amount were confiscated and returned to the store from which it came. Crew members moved freely in Tientsin, although they thought they were unsurveillance by the Communist authorities. Visits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton run were rarely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials body search was infrequent. 3. the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Ch'ienshan (N 22-E 113-32) sheek post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials a man and a woman, from the Fearl River Police Station boarded the ships.
The APPRISAL OF CONTROL IS TENTAINE. (FOR REY SEE REVERSE) 25X1 1. required to register the smount of food they intended to purchase. Food purchases were limited to six catties of pork, 10 catties of wine, and 10 eggs per person. Food purchases exceeding the specified amount were confiscated and returned to the store from which it came. Crew members moved freely in Tientsin, although they thought they were under surveillance by the Communist authorities. Visits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials; body search was infrequent. 3. the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships 25) to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Chiensham (N 22-14, E 113-32) sheek post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials; a man and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships to examine the passengers. CONFIDENTIAL/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY YEAR RE-REVIEW	crew members of ships arriving in Tientsin required to register the amount of food they intended to purchase. Food purchases were limited to six catties of pork, 10 catties of wine, and 10 eggs per person. Food purchases exceeding the specified amount were confiscated and returned to the store from which it came. Crew members moved freely in Tientsin, although they thought they were und surveillance by the communist authorities. Visits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton run were rarely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials body search was infrequent. 3. the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Ch'lenshan (N 22-E 113-32) sheek post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and wo police officials a man and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships.
the amount of food they intended to purchase. Food purchases were limited to six catties of pork, 10 catties of wine, and 10 eggs per person. Food purchases exceeding the specified amount were confiscated and returned to the store from which it came. Crew members moved freely in Tientsin, although they thought they were under surveillance by the@Communist authorities. Visits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton run were rarely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials; body search was infrequent. 3. the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships 25) to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Ch'ienshan (N 22-14, E 113-32) sheek post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials; a man and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships to examine the passengers. CONFIDENTIAL/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY YEAR RE-REVIEW	the amount of food they intended to purchase. Food purchases were limited to six catties of pork, 10 catties of wine, and 10 eggs per person. Food purchases exceeding the specified amount were confiscated and returned to the store from which it came. Crew members moved freely in Tientsin, although they thought they were und surveillance by the Communist authorities. Visits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton run were rarely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials body search was infrequent. 3. the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Ch'lenshan (N 22-E 113-32) Sheck post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials a man and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships	5 X 1
the amount of food they intended to purchase. Food purchases were limited to six catties of pork, 10 catties of wine, and 10 eggs per person. Food purchases exceeding the specified amount were confiscated and returned to the store from which it came. Crew members moved freely in Tientsin, although they thought they were under surveillance by the Communist authorities. Visits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton run were rarely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials; body search was infrequent. 3. the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships 25) to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Ch'ienshan (N 22-14, E 113-32) sheek post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials; a man and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships to examine the passengers. CONFIDENTIAL/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY YEAR RE-REVIEW	the amount of food they intended to purchase. Food purchases were limited to six catties of pork, 10 catties of wine, and 10 eggs per person. Food purchases exceeding the specified amount were confiscated and returned to the store from which it came. Crew members moved freely in Tientsin, although they thought they were und surveillance by the Communist authorities. Visits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton run were rerely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials body search was infrequent. 3. the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Ch'ienshan (N 22-E 113-32) sheck bost, the Kwangtung Customs Office, and the Nanshiht ou (0589/4258/7333) sheck post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials a man and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships
the amount of food they intended to purchase. Food purchases were limited to six catties of pork, 10 catties of wine, and 10 eggs per person. Food purchases exceeding the specified amount were confiscated and returned to the store from which it came. Crew members moved freely in Tientsin, although they thought they were under surveillance by the Communist authorities. Visits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton run were rarely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials; body search was infrequent. 3. the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships 25) to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Ch'ienshan (N 22-14, E 113-32) sheek post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials as man and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships to examine the passengers. CONFIDENTIAL/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY YEAR RE-REVIEW	the amount of food they intended to purchase. Food purchases were limited to six catties of pork, 10 catties of wine, and 10 eggs per person. Food purchases exceeding the specified amount were confiscated and returned to the store from which it came. Crew members moved freely in Tientsin, although they thought they were und surveillance by the Communist authorities. Visits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton run were rarely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials body search was infrequent. 3. the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Ch'ienshan (N 22-E 113-32) sheck post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials a man and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships
the amount of food they intended to purchase. Food purchases were limited to six catties of pork, 10 catties of wine, and 10 eggs per person. Food purchases exceeding the specified amount were confiscated and returned to the store from which it came. Crew members moved freely in Tientsin, although they thought they were under surveillance by the Communist authorities. Visits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton run were rarely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials; body search was infrequent. 3. the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships 25) to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Ch'ienshan (N 22-14, E 113-32) sheek post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials; a man and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships to examine the passengers. CONFIDENTIAL/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY YEAR RE-REVIEW	the amount of food they intended to purchase. Food purchases were limited to six catties of pork, 10 catties of wine, and 10 eggs per person. Food purchases exceeding the specified amount were confiscated and returned to the store from which it came. Crew members moved freely in Tientsin, although they thought they were und surveillance by the Communist authorities. Visits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton run were rarely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials body search was infrequent. 3. the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Ch'ienshan (N 22-E 113-32) sheck bost, the Kwangtung Customs Office, and the Nanshiht ou (0589/4258/7333) theck post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials a man and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships
the amount of food they intended to purchase. Food purchases were limited to six catties of pork, 10 catties of wine, and 10 eggs per person. Food purchases exceeding the specified amount were confiscated and returned to the store from which it came. Crew members moved freely in Tientsin, although they thought they were under surveillance by the Communist authorities. Visits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton run were rarely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials; body search was infrequent. 3. the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships 25) to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Ch'ienshan (N 22-14, E 113-32) sheek post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials as man and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships to examine the passengers. CONFIDENTIAL/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY YEAR RE-REVIEW	the amount of food they intended to purchase. Food purchases were limited to six catties of pork, 10 catties of wine, and 10 eggs per person. Food purchases exceeding the specified amount were confiscated and returned to the store from which it came. Crew members moved freely in Tientsin, although they thought they were und surveillance by the Communist authorities. Visits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton run were rarely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials body search was infrequent. 3. the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Ch'ienshan (N 22-E 113-32) sheck post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials a man and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships	0.51
the amount of food they intended to purchase. Food purchases were limited to six catties of pork, 10 catties of wine, and 10 eggs per person. Food purchases exceeding the specified amount were confiscated and returned to the store from which it came. Crew members moved freely in Tientsin, although they thought they were under surveillance by the Communist authorities. Visits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton run were rarely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials; body search was infrequent. 3. the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships 25) to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Chilenshan (N 22-14, E 113-32) Sheck bost, the Kwangtung Customs Office, and the Nanshiht'ou (0589/14258/7333) Sheck post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials; a man and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships to examine the passengers. CONFIDENTIAL/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY YEAR RE-REVIEW	the amount of food they intended to purchase. Food purchases were limited to six catties of pork, 10 catties of wine, and 10 eggs per person. Food purchases exceeding the specified amount were confiscated and returned to the store from which it came. Crew members moved freely in Tientsin, although they thought they were und surveillance by the Communist authorities. Visits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton run were rarely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials body search was infrequent. 3. the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Ch'ienshan (N 22-E 113-32) sheck post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials a man and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships	e25)
six catties of pork, 10 catties of wine, and 10 eggs per person. Food purchases exceeding the specified amount were confiscated and returned to the store from which it came. Crew members moved freely in Tientsin, although they thought they were under surveillance by the Communist authorities. Visits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton 25) run were rarely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials; body search was infrequent. 3. the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships 25) to Canton were from the Kunggei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kunggei Customs Office, the Chilensham (N 22-14, E 113-32) Sheck bost, the Kwangtung Customs Office, and the Nanshiht'ou (0589/4258/7333) Sheck bost, the Kwangtung Customs Office, and the Nanshiht'ou (0589/4258/7333) Sheck bost boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials; a man and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships to examine the passengers. CONFIDENTIAL/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY YEAR RE-REVIEW	six catties of pork, 10 catties of wine, and 10 eggs per person. Food purchases exceeding the specified amount were confiscated and returned to the store from which it came. Crew members moved freely in Tientsin, although they thought they were und surveillance by the Communist authorities. Visits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton run were rarely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials body search was infrequent. 3. the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Ch'ienshan (N 22-E 113-32) sheck post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships.
it came. Crew members moved freely in Tientsin, although they thought they were under surveillance by the Communist authorities. Visits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton run were rarely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials; body search was infrequent. 3. the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships 25) to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Ch'ienshan (N 22-14, E 113-32) sheek bost, the Kwangtung Customs Office, and the Nanshiht'ou (0589/4258/7333) sheek bost, the Kwangtung Customs Office, and the Nanshiht'ou (0589/4258/7333) sheek bost, the Kwangtung Customs officials and two police officials a man and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships to examine the passengers. CONFIDENTIAL/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY YEAR RE-REVIEW	it came. Crew members moved freely in Tientsin, although they thought they were und surveillance by the Communist authorities. Visits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton run were rarely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials body search was infrequent. 3. the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Ch'ienshan (N 22-E 113-32) Sheck bost, the Kwangtung Customs Office, and the Nanshiht'ou (0589/4258/7333) Sheck post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials as an and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships surveillance by the Communist authorities. Visits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton 25) run were rarely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials; body search was infrequent. 3. the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships 25) to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Ch'ienshan (N 22-14, E 113-32) Sheek bost, the Kwangtung Customs Office, and the Nanshit'ou (0589/4258/7333) Sheek post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials; a man and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships to examine the passengers. CONFIDENTIAL/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY YEAR RE-REVIEW	surveillance by the Communist authorities. Visits to movies and friends did not require permission from public security offices. 2. seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton run were rarely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials body search was infrequent. 3. the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Ch'ienshan (N 22-E 113-32) Sheck bost, the Kwangtung Customs Office, and the Nanshiht'ou (0589/4258/7333) Sheck post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials as man and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton run were rarely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials; body search was infrequent. the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Ch'ienshan (N 22-14, E 113-32) Sheck bost, the Kwangtung Customs Office, and the Nanshiht'ou (0589/4258/7333) Sheck post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials; a man and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships to examine the passengers. CONFIDENTIAL/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY YEAR RE-REVIEW	seamen going ashore from ships on the regular Canton run were rarely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials body search was infrequent. the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Ch'ienshan (N 22-E 113-32) Sheck post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials as an and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships	16T.
run were rerely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials; body search was infrequent. the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships 25) to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Ch'ienshan (N 22-14, E 113-32) sheek post; the Kwangtung Customs Office, and the Nanshiht'ou (0589/4258/7333) sheek post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials; a man and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships to examine the passengers. CONFIDENTIAL/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY YEAR RE-REVIEW	run were rarely inspected by Canton Customs officials. When returning to ships from shore, packages that they carried were cursorily examined by customs officials body search was infrequent. the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Ch'ienshan (N 22-E 113-32) Sheck post, the Kwangtung Customs Office, and the Nanshiht'ou (0589/4258/7333) Sheck post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials as an and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships.	251
the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships 25) to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Ch'ienshan (N 22-14, E 113-32) Sheck bost, the Kwangtung Customs Office, and the Nanshiht'ou (0589/4258/7333) Sheck post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials; a man and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships to examine the passengers. CONFIDENTIAL/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY YEAR RE-REVIEW	the only Chinese Communist officials boarding ships to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Ch'ienshan (N 22-E 113-32) Sheck bost, the Kwangtung Customs Office, and the Nanshiht'ou (0589/4258/7333) Sheck post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Ch'ienshan (N 22-14, E 113-32) Sheck bost, the Kwangtung Customs Office, and the Nanshiht'ou (0589/4258/7333) Sheck post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships to examine the passengers. CONFIDENTIAL/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY YEAR RE-REVIEW	to Canton were from the Kungpei (N 22-12, E 113-32) Border Defense Station. On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Ch'ienshan (N 22-E 113-32) Sheck Post, the Kwangtung Customs Office, and the Nanshiht'ou (0589/4258/7333) Sheck post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ship	$
On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Chlienshan (N 22-14, E 113-32) sheek bost, the Kwangtung Customs Office, and the Nanshiht'ou (0589/4258/7333) sheek post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships to examine the passengers. CONFIDENTIAL/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY YEAR RE-REVIEW	On previous trips, officials from the Kungpei Customs Office, the Ch'ienshan (N 22-E 113-32) sheck post, the Kwangtung Customs Office, and the Nanshiht'ou (0589/4258/7333) sheck post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials as an and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships.	25)
E 113-32) sheek bost, the Kwangtung Customs Office, and the Nanshiht'ou (0589/4258/7333) sheek post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials a man and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships to examine the passengers. CONFIDENTIAL/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY YEAR RE-REVIEW	E 113-32) sheek bost, the Kwangtung Customs Office, and the Nanshiht'ou (0589/4258/7333) sheek post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ship
7333) Speck post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ships to examine the passengers. CONFIDENTIAL/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY YEAR RE-REVIEW	7333) Sheck post boarded the ships. In Canton, six customs officials and two police officials (a man and a woman, from the Pearl River Police Station boarded the ship	14.
confidential/control - U.S. Officials only YEAR RE-REVIEW		-
CONFIDENTIAL/CONTROL + U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY YEAR RE-REVIEW		e .
YEAR RE-REVIEW		e .
YEAR RE-REVIEW		e .
YEAR RE-REVIEW		e .
YEAR RE-REVIEW	CONFIDENTIAL/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY	e . e .
ATE TO ADMY TO NAVY TO ALD TO EDIT TOO	TENTAL TALVILLAN	e .
'ATE TO ADMY TO NAVY TO ALD TO EDIT TO TO		e .
	TATE X ARMY X NAVY X AIR X FBJ AEC	e .